MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Dick Cook, Assistant to the President for Congressional Relations, re Director's Retirement.

This morning Mr. Cook called me to say that he and Tom Korologus, Deputy Assistant to the President, were planning to have Jim Schlesinger go to Mississippi to call personally on Chairman Stennis and officially inform him of Schlesinger's planned appointment as DCI. He asked my view as to whether it would be well for Schlesinger to continue his trip on to Louisiana and make a similar call on Chairman Hebert, of the House Armed Services Committee. I said this seemed to me a good idea. He asked who the members of our House subcommittees were and I told him.
